

President Fannin called the meeting to order at 11:00 a.m.

In the absence of Chaplin Jean Hemphill the invocation was given by Myra Hammond. The members then rose for the pledges to the flags.

President Fannin told the members that letters were received from Catherine Chew of Craven Community College, expressing thanks for the two scholarships given to students and from Emily Helling for our donation to Craven Concerts.

She then announced that we have acquired the majority of the houses needed for the 2015 The Holly and The Ivy homes tour and that Ronnie Greene has agreed to chair it.

President Fannin then called the members of her 2013-2014 to join her at the podium where she thanked them all for their support and assistance during her term of office.

The meeting was then turned over to Paula Lindsay, Mary Lynn Desmond, and Sandra Rawlings who administered the installation of the new officers: Katherine Fannin, President; Marcy Riordan, First Vice-President; Joan Campbell, Second Vice President-Membership; Martha Faw, Second Vice-President Lunches; Liz Maravelas, Treasurer; and D' Stone, Corresponding Secretary. Pat Ruff, Recording Secretary, was unable to attend the meeting, but was welcomed in spirit.

Liz Maravelas, on behalf of the out-going board, thanked President Fannin for her service over the last two years and presented her with gifts from the board members.

President Fannin reminded both out-going and in-coming board members of the new officer transition meeting scheduled at her home, June 4th at 10:00 a.m. A new members meeting will follow at 11:00 a.m. and all members who joined the NBWC in the last few years are invited to attend.

Marcy Riordan then facilitated the drawing for door prizes.

The members then rose to recite the Collect and the meeting was adjourned at 11:35 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Sandra Rawlings
Recording Secretary
