

NBWC General Meeting Minutes

April 6, 2017

President Fannin called the meeting to order at 11:00 a.m. Chaplin Mary Lynne Desmond led the club in a moment of silence to remember former member Elizabeth McGovern. Mary Lynne gave the invocation including poems "April Showers" and "God's Blessing". President Fannin led the club in the salute and pledge to the flags. She then shared a poem "Everything I Need to Know I've Learned from the Easter Bunny".

D' Stone reported for Correspondence. A NBWC card was sent to Chris Skrotsky due to the passing of her father. Club members are asked to remember her in their thoughts and prayers. An update was given of members who are ill. Ellen Watson has returned home. Sherry Springer is still in the hospital and with the support of her family will soon go to an assisted living facility. Shirley Elliker is recovering from a broken shoulder. D' welcomed back Anne Harman, Jane Schmidt, Janet MacLaren and Ann Court.

Liz Maravelas, Treasurer, reported Checking Account $4619.92, Money Market $18,214.59, Wells Fargo Advisors $991.50, Club Expenses $516.60. Liz also stated that the club provided $110.00 for a gift basket for "Get Your Pink On" and club members Marcy Riordan, Peggy Call and Liz Maravelas contributed items to increase the value of the basket to $200.00.

Joan Campbell reported for Membership. Cassandra Crowley is here from Bike MS and we have three guests. Two new members were inducted today, Fran Foley and Brenda Harris.

Martha Faw reported for Lunches. The menu for May will be in the newsletter. The meeting will be a social and the new officers will be installed.

Paula Lindsay reported for Meals on Wheels. The signup sheets for volunteers through September were passed. Information regarding volunteering for Meals on Wheels is in a folder on the round table at the back. President Fannin gave a thank you gift to Franky Waters for making Easter baskets to be distributed on Monday, April, 10 to Meals on Wheels recipients on the Pembroke route.

Photos are being taken today for the Photo Directory. The photos will be placed on the web site and possibly in the yearbook. Franky Waters is providing leadership for this project. Tom McCabe is the photographer. He will take three photos today of club members. Kathy and Franky will choose which photos are used.

The Smart Girls Tea will be held at the First Presbyterian Church Session House. Approximately 45 girls are eligible to attend and each girl may bring one guest. Belk's has given NBWC a $25.00 gift certificate for each girl. Club members who attend will pay $15.00.

GFWC-NC Convention will be April 21-22 in Cary, NC. Marcy Riordan will go as a delegate. Contact President Fannin today if you want to go.

Kathy Fortenbaugh reported for MS Bike Ride. She needs volunteers to help with greeting and registration. Our guest today was Cassandra Crowley. She presented the club with last year's banner and showed a mockup of our banner for 2017. She invited club members to ride with her team, "Women on Wheels". The group has 99 members, and the goal of their team is to raise $100,00.00.

President Fannin asked those nominated for the 2017-2019 board to come forward. A motion was made by Margaret Raynor to elect Marcy Riordan, President; Liz Maravelas, First Vice President-Programs, D' Stone, Second Vice President-Lunches; Vicki White, Second Vice President-Membership, Chris Skrotsky, Treasurer, Susan Lucas, Recording Secretary, and Dean Smith, Corresponding Secretary. The motion was seconded by Franky Waters. The motion was carried unanimously.

Announcements

Emily Helling announced that Craven Concerts instrument collection was given a piano by NBWC member Barbara Woodruff.

Marcy Riordan introduced the program. Club members shared their memories of "Where Have We Been, Where Are We Going". Short presentations were made by members Cathy Riggs, Holly Prafke, Barbara Shively and Martha Faw. Marcy Riordan acted as emcee.

Following the program the club rose to recite the Collect.

The meeting was adjourned 12:05 p.m.