

NBWC GENERAL MEETING

OCTOBER 3, 2019

President Liz Maravelas called the meeting to order at 11:00 a.m. and Lu Hoff gave the invocation followed by pledges to the flags.

President announced the resignation of Michelle Kieffer who was elected Recording Secretary. Joan Campbell agreed to assume the position. Lu Hoff agreed to be chaplain and Marilyn Ontiveros agreed to be Corresponding Secretary and Chair of the Sunshine Committee.

Minutes: Minutes of the May meeting were signed and approved.

Treasurer's Report: Janice Panza reported the checking account balance to be $7,778.35 and the savings account to be $7,397.61. Membership dues of $60.00 are now due.

Correspondence/Sunshine: Marilyn Ontiveros requested members inform her of any illness or difficulty requiring a note or assistance. Craven Community Foundation and the recipient of the scholarship sent thank you notes.

Lunches: Pam Gaskill reported that all lunch monies paid for the cancelled September meeting, due to the hurricane, have been moved forward. All reservations must be received by her the Saturday prior to the next scheduled meeting.

Newsletter: Barbara Shively reported submissions to the November newsletter must be received by noon, October 25th.

Meals on Wheels: Paula thanked the members for signing up for routes via email due to the cancelled September meeting. She then circulated the sign-up sheet for December and January.

Arts Department: Chris Skrotsky invited any interested members to the department's meeting following the general meeting.

Education Department: Brenda Harris reported cookbooks will be offered for sale at MumFest. Their meetings are held the second Wednesday at 10:30 at the Country Club. Mary Peterson will be their speaker at the next meeting.

Public Issues: Marcy Riordan invited members to the October 15th meeting of the department at Paula's restaurant.

Home Life: Martha Faw reported their meetings are held at the Country Club on the third Thursday at 5:30. Franky Waters thanked all of the members who helped with the Vial of Life project and reported that the project will end at the end of this year. However, if any request is made for a presentation after that it will be honored. She thanked Marcy Riordan for a $500 donation from her President's fund and announced that an unused portion of $300 of it was being returned to her fund.

Yearbook: Sandra Rawlings reminded inserts for the yearbook are available in the Sunroom.

The Holly & The Ivy: Sharon Kenny, Chair, reported that all is in readiness for the tour. Jeaninne Billingsley, Hostess Chair, thanked her assistants MJ Kirk and Cathy Riggs. House Chairs are in place and anyone who hasn't been assigned as a docent is asked to add their name to the sign-up sheets. Marcy Riordan reported tickets will be distributed at the November meeting. Barbara Shively is in need of a few more women for the Sugar Plum Treat House and will pass around a sign-up sheet. Rebecca Fenn distributed the posters.

President Marvelas informed that the Precious Purses project will again be held in January or February and requested a volunteer to chair it. Also, volunteers will be needed to collect purses in various locations. The note card project will also be held again. Several members introduced their guests.

Guest speaker, Megan Johnson of Craven Community College was introduced. Following her presentation the meeting was adjourned at 12:05 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Sandra Rawlings, Acting Recording Secretary
